WHAT THE DNP NEEDS TO KNOW

Winde Chambers, APRN, FNP
Julie Nelson, APRN, WHNP

I really do not know why my PCP sent me here...

I take a little pink pill, a heart pill and a fluid pill.....

PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT WITHOUT THE PHR

I know they gave me some pills in the ER...for infection....

I can't remember all of the surgeries I have had

I'm tired of having to give my history to 8 different people at this place

What is Healthy Living?

APRIL 2010

When people meet someone who looks good and seems very energetic for his/her age, they often say, "It must be because of all that healthy living." There may be some truth to that observation. Practicing healthy living generally makes people feel good and have more energy than people who do not practice healthy habits. Does it actually make one look younger than their age, who knows? What is clear is that practicing healthy living habits does bring benefits for one's health. So what are these healthy living habits? Read More »

Track and analyze your health with devices

Gather more data, then do more with it

Health devices—blood pressure monitors, pedometers, glucometers, and more—are a great way to gather valuable information. HealthVault lets you store that information in one central location, then use it with tools that help you track your progress and manage your health and fitness goals.
